Effective July 2, 2001, Public Law 106-113 requires both parents must consent for passport issuance to children under age 14. (Both parents must be present to sign for the child). Only one parent's signature is required for children 14 years old to 17 years old. (Only one parent and the child are required to be present to sign.)

Regardless of age, all applicants must be present when applying.
